1. What was encouraging or challenging to you from this week's teaching?
2. How has the analogy from last week of the old T-shirts helped you "put aside" the behaviors and attitudes of the "old you"?
3. What do you do when you recognize the "new you" is living like the "old you"? What verses or passages guide you in these times?
4. Place each of the 8 new garments in your wardrobe according to Colossians 3:12-14 in one of three categories:
 - a. New favorite. Often worn
 - b. Rarely worn
 - c. Still has the price tags on
5. One of the unique qualities of the new garments is that no matter how much you wear them they won't ever appear to be "worn out". How can this be?
6. How have you personally experienced God wearing these garments toward you?
7. Some of these garments may feel "too big" (overwhelming) or "not your style". What do you do with those type of garments?
