1. What was encouraging or challenging to you from this week's teaching?
2. Think about the relational inflow of the Word of Christ in your life and on a scale of 1-10 (with 1 as empty and 10 as "dwelling richly within you") how would you rate the level of the Word of Christ dwelling in you? Is it at an all-time high or has it been "higher" in the past?
3. When do you find yourself most hungry for God's Word?
4. When have you been most consistent at feasting on God's Word?
5. Share a specific time in your life when someone spoke the Word of Christ in a way that taught you truth in a helpful way.
6. Share a specific time in your life when someone spoke the Word of Christ in a way that admonished you truth in a necessary way.
7. Share a specific time in your life when someone sang a song that ministered to you.
8. As you think about the relational flow of the Word of God through you to others how are you challenged in regard to being a person who is to:
 - a. Teach others
 - b. Admonish others
 - c. Sing with thankfulness to God
9. What do you think it means for a person to go to work in the name of Jesus, or be a homemaker in the name of Jesus, or go to school in the name of Jesus?
