Application Questions Employee Matters Made New Doug Rutt, Pastor-Teacher Colossians 3:22-25 April 10, 2016

1.	What did you learn about work as you grew up in your home? What chores did you have? Which were your least favorite?
2.	What was encouraging or challenging to you from this week's teaching?
3.	Have you noticed that Christians have a stigma attached to them at your work? If so, what is it?
4.	Of the three work matters (motivation, effort, and integrity) which of these, in your opinion, matter most in the workplace? Why?
5.	Every job has unique opportunity for the kingdom of God. Some examples might be:  a. Freedom to engage in spiritual conversations b. Freedom of schedule c. Earning power for giving d. Work stays at work. Never need to bring work home e. Lots of interaction with unbelievers f. Freedom to pray

As you look at your job, what are the kingdom opportunities that your job provides? How could you take full advantage of those opportunities?
