James: The Truth We Need to Know When We Act as Judges

June 22 & 25, 2023

These questions are designed to help you understand how God's Word applies to your life personally.

1. Read James 4:11-12
2. These verses are a continuation of the answer to the question of James 4:1 "What is the source of conflicts and quarrels among you?" How have you seen believers judging other believers for things that Scripture does not explicitly forbid bring conflict and division in the church?
3. In what areas do you have strong convictions even though Scripture gives freedom? What has caused you to reach this strong conviction?
4. Why is it so hard to be fully convinced for yourself without becoming fully convinced for others?
5. How have your convictions changed over the course of your journey as a disciple of Jesus?
6. How do you glorify God when you interact with people of differing convictions?
7. How does our approach to areas of freedom (where the Bible does not define right or wrong) impact an unbeliever's understanding of the Gospel?
8. Is there anything or anyone you need to approach differently because of this message?
9. Our need for help in Children's ministry for SOS remains high for the month of July. Please choose one hour one Sunday in July to help. Use the QR code below to sign up.
