James: The Truth We Need to Know When Others Make Life Hard

June 13 & 16, 2023

These questions are designed to help you understand how God's Word applies to your life personally.

1. We will be flooded with guests next week for Power Surge Sunday! Would you please consider bringing a case or more of water to help with Power Surge or visit cfcjax.com/surge to see how you can serve next Sunday? It is a great event when everyone shares in the work!
2. Read James 5:7-11
3. What did you find challenging or encouraging from today's sermon?
4. How has the promised return of the Lord made a difference in your capacity to endure hardship?
5. How have you suffered as a follower of Jesus? Why should you expect to suffer as a follower of Jesus?
6. How do you experience circumstantial hardship differently than relational hardship?
7. Jesus speaks to great reward in heaven for suffering. How does reward in heaven motivate you?
8. Because of the intensity and depth of the hardship of Job, many would struggle to use him as an example of the Lord being compassionate and merciful. Why do you think James uses this example? How does the example of Job encourage you to endure?
